

MCOY Minutes for October 17, 2013 & Special Meeting November 6, 2013

Call to order at 6:08 –

Trunk or Treat wasn't comparable to last year but was decent. The games went well and lolli pops and glow sticks were handed out. Mrs. Carbone is going to look into and we're going to invest in a really nice big MCOY banner (to be hung at events or held in parades, etc.)!

MCOY polo shirts came in and were distributed. For anyone that has not been at meetings, another order for shirts will be placed. Withdrawal of $350 for shirts, Remaining Balance in account is $1,529.52

Black Friday fundraiser was scratched, stores are scheduled to open at 6:00 on Thanksgiving, idea just couldn't work out! ☹

Christmas Village costume theme was chosen and is going to be The Nightmare before Christmas but also had a Christmas-related twist with it, right? Erica had found some costumes online; we were going to search Disney costumes, Spirit Halloween, Amazon. 10-12 people needed for parade!

Gift card Giving Tree idea at THS – Needs to be discussed

Mr. Donaldson suggested: Us getting involved with a grant from United Way for a conversation at THS to confront the cyber bullying issue in the wake of last year's football team/rape incidents. On April 29th, 2014, a 4 hour training session will be provided and volunteers are needed to participate to be moderators or recorders. This is a large community wide event and we are interested in helping. Sign-ups were passed around.

SOCIAL ISSUE WE CAN BRING LIGHT TO, "SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING"! Bullying- Investigate speaker, written program, computer program, anonymous drop-box; Connor & Tomaz had to research different programs=any news?

Jessica Wright is already looking into bringing that comedian back! - Have we heard any details?

Want to have a food drive for either elementary, middle, or high schools; the prize being a movie gathering or handing out free movie passes, pizza party, or ice cream social. Want for a sub-committee media blitz for food drive after holidays

The thought on wanting to give a donation to FISH or another organization?

Respectfully submitted,
Mia Barbieri, Co-Secretary

We want to make the elementary school readings a staple to continue, follow-up in Jan.
